Week beginning 11th June 2017 - The Most Holy Trinity (A) and Week beginning 18th June.

Today's Readings:

First Reading - Responding to the revelation of God's glory accorded to him, Moses requests God to accompany his people, forgive their sins, and take them as an inheritance

Psalm - According to Daniel, these words of prayer were placed in the mouths of the three Jews who were condemned to death in a fiery furnace. Instead of dying, they walked in the furnace unscathed and blessed God.

Psalm Response - 18.00 - To you glory and praise for evermore

08.30 & 10.30 - Glory and praise to you for evermore

Second Reading - Paul exhorts the Corinthians to encourage one another, agree with one another and live in harmony with one another. The strength to carry out these flow from the Holy Trinity

Gospel - This remarkable passage from the Gospel proclaims God's immense love for human beings on account of which God has sent his only Son to save them. God does not condemn human beings even when they offend Him.

Second Collection THIS Sunday The Catholic Trust for England and Wales. This collection supports the legal, financial and charitable activities of the Bishop's Conference and all its departments, and provides the revenue for the central administration of the Church in this country.

Last year we held a party as a way of thanking all of you in the Parish who regularly give up your time to help ensure the Parish runs as smoothly as it does. Deacon Jolyon and I would like to invite you and a guest to attend a "Thank You" event on Saturday 8th July at 7.30pm (after the 6pm mass) in the Parish Centre as our way of thanking you for the work you do. Food and drink will be provided.

Please write your name, your guest's name and the volunteer group you work with, e.g., Choir, Readers, Cleaners, Flower arrangers, Eucharistic Ministers, Children's group, Money Counters, to name but a few. You know who you are so please do write your name on list that is in the porch so we know the numbers to expect. Fr John & Deacon Jolyon.

Week Beginning 18th June - Corpus Christi

Today's Readings

First Reading - Moses tells the people that it was the Lord who led them in the wilderness for forty years in order to test them and know what was in their heart

Psalm - This psalm has been well called "the joy-song of creation." Israel, having received a signal manifestation of the Divine power calls on all things in heaven and earth to praise the Lord.

Psalm Response - O praise the Lord, Jerusalem

Second Reading - While speaking about Christians associating themselves with heathen worship which cannot go along with Christian worship, Paul brings in the theme of the Eucharist. The Eucharist is a sharing in the body and blood of Christ.

Gospel - The repeated Jewish objection that Jesus cannot give them his flesh to eat is countered by restating the necessity of eating his flesh and drinking his blood as the condition for having eternal life

10.30 Mass- Choir Offertory Motet - Panis Angelicus (Cesar Franck)

A choir motet allows a different form of "participation" by the congregation - listening to and reflecting on the words being sung by the choir.

Those whose anniversaries occur about this time - Doris Bourne, Palas Blair-Drummond and Catherine Harre-Young.
